

FLORIDA APARTMENT ASSOCIATION HALL OF FAME

PURPOSE

The FAA Hall of Fame was established in 2005 in order to recognize individuals for their professional accomplishments and long-term service to the Florida Apartment Association and the apartment industry. The FAA Hall of Fame Committee selects a Hall of Fame recipient but is not required to select a recipient every year. The recipient can be a former or current owner-manager, an associate member, or an association executive. The presentation of the award is made at the FAA Annual Education Conference & Trade Show. The recipient is notified by the current FAA president and given the opportunity to make comments at the conference opening session.

HALL OF FAME COMMITTEE PROCEDURES

The Hall of Fame Committee is comprised of eight members: the immediate past president of FAA, who serves as the chairman; two past FAA presidents; three additional members from the Board of Directors or past Hall of Fame inductees; one association executive; and one Product/Service Council member.

The committee will meet formally prior to the annual conference each year.

Nominees for Hall of Fame consideration will not be informed that they are being considered. It is imperative that all Hall of Fame committee members understand and respect this need for confidentiality. Only those candidates with a minimum of five affirmative votes will be considered as qualifying for Hall of Fame induction.
