

EHS Today* recognizes Solid Platforms, Inc. as one of America's Safest Companies for 2015

(Portage, IN) October 27, 2015 – Solid Platforms, Inc. was named as one of America's Safest Companies by EHS Today, the leading magazine in occupational health and safety in the workplace. The award presentation was celebrated at the EHS Today's Safety Leadership Conference in Greenville, SC.

This honor recognizes companies based on their corporate safety culture, safety and training programs, and safety statistics over a three year period. Further, to be considered one of America's Safest Companies, organizations must demonstrate: support from management and employee involvement; innovative solutions to safety challenges; injury and illness rates lower than the average for their industries; comprehensive training programs; evidence that prevention of incidents is the cornerstone of the safety process; good communication about the value of safety; and a way to substantiate the benefits of the safety process.
