

If you are still having problems viewing this message, please click here for additional help.

Employment Insights for California Employers

Thursday, November 17, 2016 (2:00 PM Eastern Time)

This webinar addresses the most current issues circling representative and class actions against California employers and some steps that employers can take to protect themselves against an ever growing number of employment lawsuits. This webinar also provides information to assist employers comply with some common wage and hour technicalities and reduce their risk of being targeted in lawsuits.

REGISTER NOW →

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- HR Professionals
- Payroll Professionals
- Compliance Officers
- General Counsel

WHAT WE WILL COVER

- Exposure employers face under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004
- Impact of class action waivers in employment arbitration agreements
- Litigation Strategies for internal and/or early resolution
- Technical wage and hour requirements
- Department of Labor's Final Rule

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email and can add the event to your calendar.

Federated Employment Practices Network

877.568.6655 (Toll-free Phone)

webinars@enquiron.com