

NEHES EMERGING LEADERS SOCIAL EVENT

When and Where?

June 14 from 4—7pm at Treehouse Brewery in Charlton, MA

Why Attend?

Please join us as we help to support and develop the professional and social skills of the emerging leaders in our industry.

Who Should Attend?

All are welcome to attend this informal social event. An Emerging Leader gets free registration but anyone else that attends may have some of their event related costs covered simply by bringing an Emerging Leader with them. See registration details below.

Who is an Emerging Leader?

Healthcare system employees with 10 years or less in the industry

Registration

Supporting Members (architects, engineers, CMs and other service or product suppliers): $50

Active Members (employed by a Healthcare institution): $25

Emerging Leaders: FREE but still must register

Sponsors: $250 (While tabletop signs will not be permitted at this event, sponsors will have their logo on all electronic collateral that goes out about the event, receive two drink tickets and will have the opportunity to bring fliers and such that can be put out on picnic tables in the outside area. Additionally, your logo will be linked to your firm's website.)

Anyone who brings an Emerging Leader will receive two complimentary drink tickets for themselves and two for their guest.

About NEHES

NEHES, founded in 1958, is a professional Society for individuals responsible for the Environment of Care in the delivery of patient care. The Society is affiliated with the American Society for Healthcare Engineering (ASHE) and consists of several chapters throughout all six New England states.

What to Know:

- Treehouse Brewery is located at 129 Sturbridge Rd, Charlton, MA 01507
- Cash bar and food trucks will be onsite.
- The facility does offer corn-hole but it's on a first come, first serve basis and will simultaneously be open to the public.
- There are beautiful walking trails behind the facility. In an effort to promote and support the mental health and well-being of Healthcare workers, we will plan a group walk for those interested. If this is of interest to you, please wear or bring comfortable walking shoes.
- There is ample space for guests to socialize including a bar area, an upper deck and a large outdoor space with picnic tables that accommodate approx. 20 pp per table. Plenty of space to mingle, network, socialize and support our Emerging Leaders!
