

The ORCGA is now accepting papers for the 2025 Damage Prevention Symposium. The 2024 Symposium saw a record attendance (300+) and sold-out tradeshow with 33 Booths.

Demonstrate your company's innovations and expertise in front of the damage prevention and buried infrastructure industries leading professionals in 2024!

Symposium Tracks/Categories are (but not limited to):

- Damage Prevention Enhancement and/or Reduction Strategies
- Trenchless Technologies
- Subsurface Utility Engineering (SUE)
- Incident Case Studies - Outages, injuries etc.
- Education - Continuing, new policies
- Infrastructure - Projects, rehabilitation, etc.
- Technology Case Studies
- Private Locates
- Dedicated Locator
-

Presentation Requirements:

45-minute presentation including Q&A

Interested participants should submit one unified document to rebecca@orcga.com that includes:

- Title of paper
- An abstract overview of no more than 300 words
- Identify the stakeholder groups that would benefit
- Identify industry related benefits
- Author name/s, company, short biography and recent headshot
- Contact information
-

SUBMISSION DEADLINE:

Monday, December 2, 2024

*Acceptance after December 2 may be granted with notice of intent to present submitted by the due date.

Acceptance:

Papers will be reviewed by a committee and invitations to present will be issued as accepted.